Another Hometown Landmark

La Lone's Open New Office, Show Faith In Our City

The opening of the new office of La Lone Realty at 838 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. is another of those hometown landmark occasions.

After that, Dorothy opened a real estate office not far from the present location and Julian went into the roofing business. When the lease expired, the couple went north to Marin County to look after some real estate there, and it was then, about a year ago, that Julian had a serious accident, when a roof frame

DARWIN M. DENNIS

New Administrator Prepares For Move To Our City Soon

Darwin M. Dennis, newly appointed City Administrator for the City of Sierra Madre, is reported to be presented to those attending the regular meeting of the City Council on Oct. 25 and will actively take over the position on Nov. 1.

The administration of the city has been in the hands of Acting Administrator Larry Adams since the forepart of August when Larry Bevington completed his period after his resignation in June.

Having already purchased their home at 130 Holdman, sold by Lola Rudback Real Estate, the Dennis family does not plan to move here as a family until after the first semester of school sometime during the month of January. Mr. Dennis and his family have lived in Taft, Calif., for the past three and a half years where he was Taft's first City Manager. Prior to this he was at Riverside, Calif., where he accumulated six years experience as assistant to the City Manager.

The Dennis family consists of wife Helen, daughter Michelle, 14, and son Paul, 18, all of whom are given a hearty welcome by the people of Sierra Madre.

Open House Held At SM Fire Dept.

A rash of red hats appeared last Saturday as a result of the traditional Annual Open House held by the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department at the fire station in City Hall to conclude the educational program given in schools for Fire Prevention Week. Good indication of the larger-than-ever turnout of parents and offspring of varying ages is the fact that a box of 600 red plastic firemen's hats labeled "Junior Fire Marshal" provided by the Hartford Insurance Group was completely depleted by noon, and still the kids swarmed in. Don't think there weren't girls, too, clambering over the fire engines and inspecting every corner of the fire station.

The assorted sounds in imitation of fire sirens and the delighted whoops and shouts of small fry made all the musical accompaniment needed for the big day. Even an adult found things to learn about, like the strap at the back of engines clutched by firemen when a truck swings around a curve; seems this also is buckled around a man, so he really won't be blown off en route. An item not noted before was the old chute from second floor to first, at present fenced off.

Refuse Truck Run-Away

Driver of the City Refuse Company trash truck was seriously injured last Thursday morning as he tried to board the run-away truck at the corner of Mountain Trail and Highland Ave.

The truck, out of hand, hit the garage of the Henry Robertson home at 222 E. Highland about 6:50 a.m., doing considerable damage to the garage and the car that was parked within.

Jess Fraijo was injured about the head as he tried to board the truck and halt its movement. The Maxie double braking system, designed to hold trucks on steep hills of our city, evidently failed. Police are investigating.

FIVE PEOPLE who date back to 1905 who were very instrumental in the founding of the mountain names and passes that surround Sierra Madre. If you can name all of them, and be the first to reach the News office with those names you will receive a $10 bill. These people spent most of their time exploring the trails of the area, and set down interesting facts that will be told to you as the days go forward. Watch for them under the pen name of Bill Wark, Mountaineer.

To Discuss All Propositions

DR. NOLAN FRIZZELLE

Dr. Nolan Frizzelle, past president of the California Republican Assembly, will discuss all 16 Propositions on the Nov. 8 General Election ballot at the next Sierra Madre United Republicans of California meeting. Members, guests and the general public are invited to attend the Thursday, Oct. 27 confab at 8 p.m. at the Sierra Madre School auditorium, 141 W. Highland Ave.

"Initiatives are grass roots efforts; through them, 'we, the people,' speak," observed Jim Cruver, local UROC president.

Dr. Frizzelle, a member of the Republican State Central Committee and a practicing Doctor of Optometry, is a native Californian.

"Our dynamic, 45-year-old speaker is well qualified to discuss these Propositions," added Mr. Cruver, "and we are most fortunate to have a Republican leader of such outstanding caliber with us."

Scouts To Hold Court Of Honor

The presentation of five Eagle Scout badges will highlight the Court of Honor to be held by the Hastings Ranch-Sierra Madre area of the Rose Bowl District, Boy Scouts of America, at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 25, at the Sierra Madre School Auditorium, 161 W. Highland Ave.

Under the direction of Marcus Woodward, district advancement representative for the area, the Court of Honor will feature the awarding of advancements and merit badges earned by the Scouts and Explorers in troops and posts. There are rumors that the battle for the attendance "Oscar" will be one of the most hotly contested for several Courts.

Scout leaders in the area, as well as members of the professional staff from the Council office, will assist Mr. Woodward in the Court of Honor program.

City Council Meets Wed.,

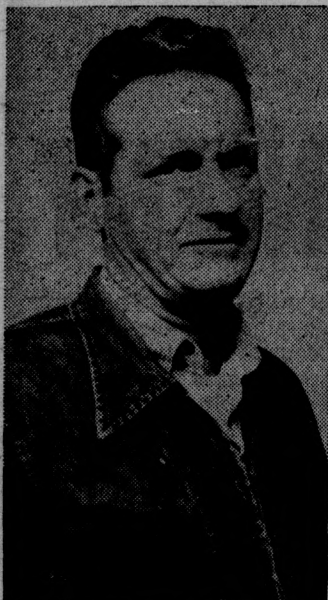

The Sierra Madre City Council will meet in adjourned session at the hour of 8 Wednesday evening, October 19.

The purpose of the meeting will be two-fold: Discussion of the supplemental water situation and a report from those who met with the Los Angeles Flood Control District, and what they found out at the meeting and their recommendations for action that should be taken and considered by the City Council.

A REUNION HELD some 16 years ago gathered together many of the members of the La Lone family living in the area. This large and energetic family is much in the minds of townspeople these days because Fred La Lone founded the original Sierra Madre Mountaineers, now the Search and Rescue Team, which is the theme of the city's Rose Float this year and currently in the news because of a feared threat to its existence by a County team training in the area. Dorothy and Julian La Lone have recently opened a new office for La Lone Realty at 838 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Introducing Three Members Of Our Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department

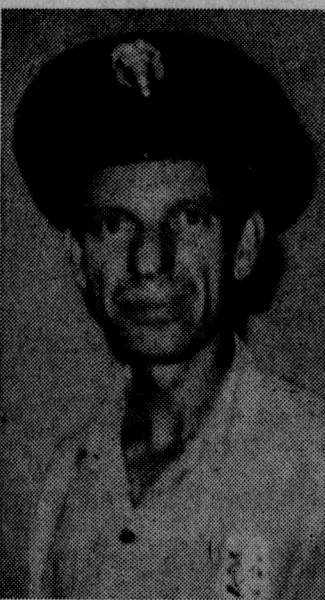

JOHN BUCHAN

John Buchanan of 610 W. Alegria was born here, and his wife has spent most of her life here, so though 5 years is the period he has been a volunteer fireman in Sierra Madre, both remember the earlier storied days of the department. Their children, John Scott, 11 and Sandra Jane, 9, attend St. Rita's, enjoy any and everything out of doors with their parents, who often take off in pick-up and small camper for Big Bear, beach or family near Sacramento. (The Buchans were among first to ride Hondas in the desert). Though not "joiners" they always seem to be there pitching in where help is needed, a habit which comes naturally to firemen and their families it seems.

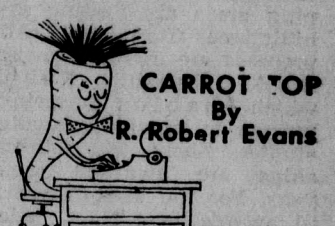

WILLARD W. DIEMER

Willard W. Diemer of 101 Vista Circle Drive is another member of the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department who has inspired a son to join up. Oldest boy Willard has now left the local group and become a fireman up at Lake Tahoe, was just recently married. The Diemers have lived here over 16 years, raising their 7 children (which constitutes wife Claire's hobby) and Bill has been a volunteer for 15 years. He was just elected to our Fire Commission, loves baseball, takes family camping to their place in High Sierras. Daughter Lorraine is married with 2 children, lives in Vacaville. John lives here; others at home still are Marilyn, 19, PCC, Lawrence, 17, (senior and baseball pitcher, PHS), and Rosemary, 15, PHS, Frank, 13, Wilson.

WILLIAM NEWBERRY

William Newberry, 435 E. Grandview, moved here nearly forty years ago, been a member of Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department just 20 years, and has seen the group turn-over 3 or 4 times during this period. His job is with the Boy Scouts, and he's been Scoutmaster for Troop No. 373 for 12 years, so it's not surprising he asks, "Who has time for hobbies?" Actually he's involved in most any outdoor sport you could name. He's another example of father-son inspiration: his own father, Robert Newberry was a volunteer fireman for 22 years before his death ten years ago. Example to sons ought to be listed as another reason for young fathers to join up.

Fire prevention week is all over, I do hope that many of us are more leantened today on fire preventatives, but I am more interested in the fact that the people of our area know more about their Fire Department and its men. We have tried over the past two months to give you interesting stories about both.

With the ordering of the new Fire Engine for Sierra Madre, making a total of four, when it arrives sometime during next year, it is found that several more firemen could be added to the roster to bring the complement up to what will be needed to handle all of the equipment.

On behalf of Charley Brown and the Officers of the Sierra Madre Fire Department we are hereby giving those eligible a special invitation to join with the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department.

Several requirements are necessary to become a member, and Secretary Bert Embree, whose office is in the City Building, will be glad to go over them with you and give you an application if you are eligible.

The most important point of eligibility is the fact that you must live within the corporate limits of the City of Sierra Madre.

If your application is submitted and accepted, you will find that you have joined up with one of the finest groups of men that you would ever want to know.

It is a bond between men who know that each of their lives may depend upon each someday, and the closeness is terrific. Immediately upon acceptance of your membership you will given careful detailed training. This, of course is not a two-day course, a two-week or even months, but it will be done over the days and years ahead, geared to the point of you knowing the workings of each piece of equipment. You will be trained to work with the other men, know them personally, their abilities and their jobs at the scene for a fire, how to play as a fireman, and how to work as a fireman.

There are several openings now available on the Department due to retirements, and some who have moved from the community. If you want to join up with a great group of men, then now is the time to submit your application for consideration.

Dayton Sellers was in to see me the other day, seems that he had heard some erroneous information about what is "conservatism" and what is not, and he wanted to assure us that the Sierra

Arcadia's Holiday Windows To Be Viewed Nov. 3, No Merchandise Sold

"Arcadia's Holiday Windows" will be on view for all area residents on Thursday, Nov. 3, when the Arcadia Branch of the American Association of University Women presents its Eighth Annual Festive Fare. For this one day, the Los Angeles Turf Club will be transformed into a gala, festive showcase for the elaborate and varied displays of Christmas "Fare" offered by approximately 60 Arcadia merchants.

The public is invited free of charge from 1 a.m. to 9 p.m. to "window shop", many Arcadia stores in one location.

Featuring suggestions for merchandise and services of all descriptions—gifts, decorating and entertaining ideas—the Fare offers opportunity for Christmas planning in elegant, holiday atmosphere.

No merchandise will be sold at the Fare, but store representatives will be present to answer questions and to give demonstrations. Many prizes and free samples will be given.

Complimentary coffee and mints will be served by AAUW members; candy canes will be given to the children. Programs listing participating merchants will be distributed at the door to aid visitors in completing their Christmas lists.

Space has been donated by the Turf Club and merchants from all four shopping areas are renting exhibit areas from AAUW. All proceeds are directed to the AAUW Fellowships Fund, which enables deserving women to pursue graduate studies. About 100 fellowships are awarded each year. For the 1966-67 year, 51 awards have been made to American women and 55 to women from 31 other countries. Last year, Arcadia Branch contributed over $3,500 to this program of international education, according to Mrs. Eugene Salternik, branch president. The branch has given over $16,500 since 1955.

Adding to the excitement of the day will be a parade featuring Santa Claus on an antique fire engine, accompanied by Mayor Forman, Mrs. Harold Sexsmith, Fare chairman, Arcadia merchants, and pre-school children. The entourage will arrive at the Turf Club promptly at 10 a.m. to supervise the ribbon cutting ceremony which will officially open the Fare. Santa will remain at the Fare for the rest of the day.

Mrs. Albert Baker is assisting Mrs. Sexsmith as co-chairman for the event.

Committee members are Mmes. Robert Fish, Ray Swanson, Fred Potter, Robert Paradise, Rosemary Gartner, Lloyd Brown, F. Jack Liebau, Ira Price, Earl Crockett, William C. A. Woods, Dorothy Kushner, Edward Sampson, Dan Chapel, Bernice Bryant, Burtis Taylor, Ralph Boyes, Sydney Buck, Harold Ravitz, Frank Thomas and Eugene Salternik.

Paint A Can And Brighten Up City And Win A Prize

Just because trash cans are a "necessary evil," it doesn't mean they necessarily have to be evil looking. Get on the "paint wagon" and help brighten up our city with distinctively designed trash cans, by entering our Paint A Can contest.

Any Sierra Madrean may enter the contest for the best entry. One design per person to be submitted to the City Hall, in color, no larger than 18 by 24 inches, by Friday, Nov. 1.

All entries will be on display in the Council Chambers during the second and third weeks of November. Announcement of the winners will be during the fourth week, with local artist judging.

Winners will be notified this same week and given the pleasure of recreating their "masterpiece" on a trash can in the village square during the first week in December. There will be a final judging of the finished products. The second week in December prizes will be awarded.

Applications may be had at the City Hall and at merchants in town.

Come on, join the fun. Who knows, we might end up with a Leonardo da Vinci, Monet, or a Rembrandt on our city streets. For further information, call the Sierra Madre Parks and Recreation Department, 355-7135.

The Menu Story

by Frank P. Burke

One man who completely baffled the restaurant world was Lawrence Frank. His idea to have a ONE ENTREE RESTAURANT was termed — idiotic — hair brained — not smart, etc., etc.

The one entree was prime rib — to be COOKED and SERVED in traditional English style.

First the ribs are encased in rock salt — this method seals in all the natural juices and flavor.

The ribs are brought to your table in gleaming silver carts that are battery operated. Before the cart arrives a charming and VERY efficient waitress has served you a truly delicious salad with one of the dressings made by Lawry's Foods.

The ribs are served with mashed potatoes, spinach, peas, or if you wish — a baked potato.

On June 15, 1938 Lawry's opened its doors and the skeptics have never been heard from.

I don't have enough room for all the credits for Lawry's success but Lawrence Frank had vision. He also had Theodore J. Van de Kamp and Walter Van de Kamp, his brothers-in-law; Miss Jean Wilmas Anthony (who lives in Sierra Madre), Richard and Ralph Wilmas.

Any listing of the ten best restaurants in THE COUNTRY, you'll see Lawry's The Prime Rib.

My Sincere thanks to Mr. Robert Evans and to Pauline Neal of the Sierra Madre News. They give me space to tell this story.

Next week we visit the Del Rae on Washington and Rosemead.

A real EXOTIC menu.

You and Your Neighbors . . .

It would be worth all the work of writing a musical just to have the satisfaction of seeing a ballet choreographed which showed parents dashing in curious rhythmed patterns from one building to another on Back to School Night, as they did at PHS last Thursday. The dream buildings, lighted against the night, the darts and steps to ask re-directions from the hostesses cheer leaders in their pert and brief-skirted uniforms were all part of the dream. Among others seen there were Mary and Tom Redman (landing in French instead of English—I listened to the wrong algebra teacher awhile myself, but never mind, he was charming and eased my mind about new math). Mary was looking so chicly Parisian that the word "enceinte" could only be a faint suspicion. The completing fashion note of her gloves had a purpose, however, unmasked when Tom bumped his crazybone on a desk seat and Mary had to sign names and so removed a glove; her hands were tinted both blue and brown, from dyeing a bedspread and staining a coffee table, logical activities in a new home. Probably no one noticed, but it was comforting, when she told the story, to have reaffirmed that some of the shining parent faces and resplendent teen-approved garb might be as ardently achieved as mine after a day of autumnal busy-ness and complexities. Worth it, though, and good to have a mental portrait of a given teacher when the homework groans sound off.

Want to win a FREE trip to Europe . . . See Byron Hopper, Jeweler, at once at 90 West Sierra Madre Blvd. . . He'll tell you how.

World Community Day Observed By Church Women

The San Gabriel Valley church women will join the United Church Women organizations throughout the world on Friday, November 4, by pausing for a special worship service to commemorate World Community Day.

The local United Church Women will combine their efforts with women across the land in launching a united program under the theme of "Lalty: Rights, Resources, Responsibilities."

"We invite all interested people to attend the World Community Day observance and take an active part in this program," states Mrs. C. A. Trowbridge, president of the United Church Women of Pasadena.

The money received from the offering will be used mainly for two projects: (1) planned parenthood in India, (2) establishing training centers for women in New Guinea.

An interesting display is planned to show the clothing and hygiene kits made and filled by the United

Aux. Of Crippled Children's Guild To Hold Bronze & Gold dBrunch Today

The annual Bronze and Gold Brunch of the Sierra Madre Auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopaedic Hospital will take place Thurs. in the home of Mrs. Charles Corp, 1955 Willano Drive, Sierra Madre.

Gold chrysanthemums will be presented to Mrs. Roger Hopkins of Pasadena and Mmes. James F. Abernethy, Nick Argy, Charles I. Corp, Leo N. Lechner, Roy W. Linder, G. Norman Kennedy and Edward Riggins, all of Sierra Madre. These women have fulfilled the requirements for full membership by giving volunteer service and supporting the activities of the auxiliary during their provisional year.

Following the brunch, Mrs. Billie Thompson, volunteer coordinator, will give an orientation to the new provisionals and conduct a tour of Orthopaedic Hospital.

The kits contain soap, tooth brushes, towels, wash clothes, etc. The clothing and kits will be sent to Viet Nam and Southeast Asian countries. Last year nine hundred garments were sent to needy people in other countries. It is hoped that this year will far surpass that number.

Myrtle Johnson An Inspiration To Many Members Of Our Community

After teaching in the public and private schools in Iowa and Illinois at intervals for 32 years, Myrtle Lucille Johnson, with her husband, Ray Johnson, moved to Southern California in 1947 to retire. They were hardly settled comfortably in suburban Sierra Madre when Father Harley Smith, the rector of the local Episcopal Church of the Ascension, approached Mrs. Johnson with an urgent request: a teacher for the combined class of first and second grades was needed at the Parish Day School; would she consider coming out of retirement "to fill in for about six months?" That was in 1948.

Today, 18 years later, Mrs. Johnson is still teaching the first and second grades at Ascension Parish Day School. Since Ascension is a parochial school founded and run by an order of Episcopal Sisters, the Community of St. Mary's, Mrs. Johnson has continued to teach much beyond the normal retirement age; and hundreds of former students and their parents comment with gratitude that this remarkable woman's talents have not gone to waste because of her age.

Myrtle Lucille Franklin, who says her maiden name can be traced back to Benjamin Franklin, received her training at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa, and Minnesota Normal College in Austin, Minnesota. Her father was a druggist and she had planned on becoming a doctor, but when she consented to teach in a one-room country schoolhouse near Lone Rock, Iowa in 1906, her teaching career was launched. At that time she taught 25 children from grades one to eight.

Her reputation as a teacher grew and soon she was getting calls to teach in the towns of Lone Rock and later Austin, Iowa.

In 1948 at Ascension School, Mrs. Johnson had a class of 15 first and second grade students. Her effectiveness as a teacher soon

Contracts Total $125,000,000

Tunnel To Bring State Water Service To Area

State Water Resources Director William E. Warne said recently that construction contracts totaling $125 million have just been awarded for tunnels to bring State Water Project service to Southern California.

Soccer Film To Be Shown Mon.

Soccer sport fans who are interested in the formation this year of a soccer league for Sierra Madre will not want to miss the film on this sport which will be shown without admission charge at 7 o'clock, Monday evening, Nov. 4, at Sierra Madre School. Film title is "European Cup Finals," showing play between Spain and Germany.

For information on film or registration of boys from 8 to 15 for play in the league, phone Prover Tooez, 355-6278, or Parks and Recreation Department.

Three of the tunnels will carry 10 million gallons of water an hour through the Tehachapi Mountains for use in Los Angeles, Ventura, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego and Imperial Counties, Warne explained.

Details of the tunnel work and other construction for the State Water Project were described by Warne at a luncheon meeting of the Los Angeles Post of the Society of American Military Engineers.

Woman's Club To Hold Monthly Tea

Sierra Madre Woman's Club meets Oct. 26 at 2 p.m. for its monthly Tea Meeting in the Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

To enhance the afternoon's fellowship with a musical note, Miss Marianne Dembisky will solo at the piano. Miss Dembisky is a young pianist of unusual promise who is now a senior at Covina High School. She is a pupil of Ivan Baker, an instructor of piano and pipe organ at the Arcadia Music Mart, who has brought out more than one artist of exceptional ability.

Tea arrangements are by Mrs. Flora Anderson, assisted by Mrs. Frances Gardner, Mrs. W. F. Schegardis and Mrs. Nina Dimick.

You and Your Neighbor

by Mary-Madeleine Langhler

Ivan Ower, 81 N. Auburn, took son Arthur (13 Wilson) and nephew Jack of Monrovia to Lancaster for some motorcycling in the hills around there. Mr. and Mrs. Ower have a married son Richard, living in Big Bear City, who now has a little girl Debbie, year and a half old, and another married son Edwin, in Monrovia, with a baby boy, Timmie, 16 mo. So Mr. Ower has grandmothers things to do or plan while husband and son take to the hills.

The Albert Ower family, 481 Mariposa have been enjoying reunion with son Alan, home on furlough after graduation from Stanford in the Air Force, now as airman 2nd class he is slated for additional training at George AFB in Victorville. Alan attended PHS and PCC so they have many friends indeed to catch up with. His older brother Dennis is now back from his time of military service, after spending over three years in England where he was a crew chief in jet maintenance. He and his wife Linda have settled into a home here at 147 Mariposa, back of his father's Toy and Patio Village.

Which is the true story on how Minor Harkness was forced to take to crutches because of torn ligaments in his leg? Did the Sheriff's "goon" squad catch him because of all the furore over the threat to the existence of the Search and Rescue team? Or are the crutches secret weapons in case? Or was it a fall from chasing blondes? Couldn't, of course, be anything as simple as Joe Grippi's excuse for breaking his leg and landing in St. Luke and a cast that will probably remain on for six months; Joe received his injury in the line of duty, sliding into third in a game of the Soft Ball League. Sympathy to both — and especially to their wives.

And speaking of Search and Rescue and the name La Lone in the news: it was 42 years ago this month that Mr. and Mrs. Fred La Lone arrived here from New Mexico with ten children, after a rugged 15 day trip, to make Sierra Madre their home. Guesses bringing that many children begin with would sort of give a family a hear start on populating the town.

Gordon and Sassy Lloyd just returned from taking 34 Californians into Hawaii and the outer islands. Gordon says you can't help but notice the true Hawaiian welcome on the outer island while Wakiki Beach is getting cold and impersonal like a miniature Las Vegas!

Gordon took over 600 pictures on the islands focusing on horticulture to use in lectures and classes on the mainland. One of his greatest comments were from several of the passengers who had seen the Lloyd's Hawaiian garden that their garden sure enough was like Hawaii! . . . In miniature of course.

The return trip was exciting, for the propeller on the Lurline was out of kilter and they had to return directly to San Francisco instead of letting off over 300 in Los Angeles. One day out they dumped the unique leveling system they have with water on the Lurline. Hence the last night the ship went up and down and sideways and few got a half hour sleep. The Lloyd's did not get seasick except Gordon got a good head bump. Passengers said it was the worst ride they ever had even in troop ships. The Lurline was rushed to dry dock for a day to get a new propeller that had been injured by a wire cable and it will be days before the Lloyd's get their land legs and breath back.

His seven classes in how to do a lava and scenes in foliage and leaves from both the mainland and the islands were attended by over 100 at each session on the ship going and coming, outdrawing even the ship's races. Plugs were given also for Sierra Madre News, Gordon's favorite town.

Special Grants Now Available For Counselors

Of considerable interest to the wives and mothers who may have been thinking wistfully about the possibility of returning to college for further training is the important news that Cal State L.A. has been awarded a grant of one-quarter million dollars by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare to meet the severe shortage of counselors for the handicapped, mental or physical, by expanding training services.

Shortage of counselors is particularly severe in Southern California as the result of expanding population needs. Therefore, although a bachelor's degree is a prerequisite, the need is so great and the scholarships so liberal that anyone at all interested ought to at least look into the matter, and find out if adjustments or part-time courses are available. Those taking advantage of the two-year federal training program will be provided not only with tuition fees but living expenses of $1,500 the first year and $2,000 the second year.

Contact Dr. Joseph Stubbins, professor who serves as program director, by writing him at Cal State L.A., or phone him at (213) 224-3708.

Storm Drain Wins Approval

Facilities To Be Built In City Of Sierra Madre Says Dorn

County supervisors today approved plans and specifications for additional storm drain facilities to be built in Sierra Madre, and set November 4 for opening bids, announced Supervisor Warren M. Dorn.

Dorn said contractors will be required to submit bids on two separate proposals involving various lengths of the projects. Award of contract, expected about two weeks after the opening, will be based on funds available.

Slated for construction under the single contract are unit one of project 737, to be financed out of the $225 million bond issue approved in 1958, and project 7501 which will be paid for from funds included in the $275 million program adopted in 1964.

Project 737 includes about 400 feet of reinforced concrete.

Parents for the first time are Mr. and Mrs. John Ferdinando of 445 W. Laurel. Their son, John Richard was born October 5 at Methodist Hospital of Southern California, Arcadia. He weighed 6 pounds, 9 ounces at birth. Maternal grandmother, Mrs. Joseph Heinz lives in Arcadia and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ferdinando live in Orange, Calif.

PCC Trustee Board Candidate Guest At Area Coffees

The first of a series of coffees was given Wednesday by Mrs. Del Comer for Tom Elliott Area 2 Candidate for the Pasadena City College Trustee Board.

Mr. Elliott declared that we cannot depend on increased State and Federal aid to the college, but must look to sound financial control and budgeting to insure that taxpayers receive a dollar value for a dollar spent.

He stated that it is imperative that the Pasadena City College Trustee Board have a member that is qualified and experienced in seeing that effective financial and business policies are instituted.

Mr. Elliott said that he is grateful for the support and encouragement he has received since declaring his candidacy, and noted that great interest in his platform has been expressed by retired senior citizens who suffer most from the unfair tax burden.

Mr. Elliott further stated that it is absolutely necessary that Pasadena City College "tighten their belts" and live with funds that are presently available.

Anyone interested in attending a coffee to become informed of Mr. Elliott's views is invited to call Mrs.
Del Comer at 355-8179 or 355-8859 for information.

Roger M. Kelley
Roger Keith Jr., 310 N.
Sunnyside, took home a small consolation brass trophy which read "Dead Last," a memento garnered in time to take along when he goes into the Armed Forces soon. (As swim star-coach and aid in starting the Sierra Madre Swim Club he should not be too chargrined.)

Among the generous donors of tourney prizes, local merchants not previously listed were The Bottle
Shop and the Jean Clemente Beauty Shop.

Chairman Boyd Smith, who got the golfing contest going, was himself racking up a good score last weekend when he tied for third in the Southern California tournament played at the Skyline course at Long Beach, playing in the Scotch mixed eightsome which permitted him to give modest credit to a good partner.

Next year's local tournament will include such a Scotch mixed eightsome, where men and women are teamed, with the gal on each team taking alternate shots with her partner.

While there are rumors that a golf practice range is being planned for Sierra Madre, practice or play at reasonable rates is now available at two nearby L.
A. County courses: Eaton
Canyon and 505 S. Santa Anita Drive, below Huntington.

San Francisco Trip Is Shared

Members of the Senior Citizens shared the enjoyment of a recent trip to San Francisco as written by Anne Ridgeway and related by Henrietta Symonds at the meeting on Saturday afternoon at the Park House.
Members of the Sierra Madre organization had joined the Santa Anita group on a bus trip to this interesting metropolis.

Traveling through the San Joaquin Valley, they witnessed the harvesting of the cotton crop, and in Fresno, the nut crop with its miles and miles of nut trees and where they stopped at a wine testing winery; Salinas, the center of the lettuce industry and San Jose acres of marigolds grown for seed.

In San Francisco they visited Muir Woods, Fishermen's Wharf, the Cliff House, Golden Gate Park and the museum there with its interesting "Bori" vase from France, and the Top of the Mark. They were awakened at their hotel in the night by terrific noise and confusion and learned in the morning the cause was the San Francisco riot.

Homeward bound they stopped at Palo Alto and Stanford University, the 17 mile drive, Monterey, Carmel, Hearst Castle and Solvang. There was not only an educational trip but one that covered miles of scenic beauty.

Edna Murphy and Lorena Cragg were welcomed back having been laid up with a bad fall and illness.

Vivian Ihrig is in community hospital from a bad fall; also Betsy Stevens, who is with her daughter, A. letter from Lillian Cason, La Jolla, thanking the members for get well cards. Henrietta Symonds announced the matinee Can Can Girls, at the Carousel, Saturday, October 29 Senior Citizens will be admitted for $2 on a $4 ticket.

Methodist Church To Have Fair Fri.

The Sierra Madre Methodist Church will have its own version of a parking lot sale on Friday, October 21 from 4 to 8 p.m. Games will entertain the kids while parents pause at the many booths selling interesting items prepared by the women of the church.

The game booths will also give the adults a little variety to their ramblings.
Entertainment will be provided by two singing groups — The Unenlisted and The Town Minorities.

Booths outside the parish house will sell tempting foods, so you can load up and go inside to eat in comfort. The hours are short but convenient. The event is open to all.

haps some kind donor can next year figure a way its rough edges could be covered to prevent torn clothes so that the more daring of young visitors can re-enact the alarms of earlier days.

The prominently displayed copies of the "Octopus" poster was a pertinent last prevention reminder to parents not to overload an electrical outlet with too many extensions, a major cause of home fires.

BILL SHARMAN'S San Francisco Warriors are the main threat. Rick Barry is the new Jerry West. He does it all. Nate Thurmond's back woes and the loss of guard Guy Rodgers figure to keep the Bay City crew from the top.

THE PIGSKIN PREDICT-ING business suffered a bit of a relapse last week. I mean the stocks went down.
Old Hankus struggled along with a 14-6 week, tabling the Vikings over L.A. and just missing on Michigan.
Season's total now reads
77-22-1, still good for a 77 percentage.

PASADENA'S LANCERS
lowered the boom on Pierce last week. Oddly enough, the locals still don't look like the well-oiled machine they should be, but a brutal defense gets the job done. Santa Barbara comes to town and can no longer be called "patsies." Take the Lancers for their fifth straight victory, but closer than you might think.

PASADENA is loaded with three of the finest high school football teams in the Southland. Unfortunately two of them, Muir and Blair, meet Friday night at Horrell Field. This makes for a prognosticator's dilemma. Muir has Dave Buchana, Blair has Jim Adams.
Both strike for scores from any place on the field.
Plenty of scoring punch on both sides. Make it MUIR 33, Blair 28.

PASADENA'S BULLDOGS will dispose of Burbank in easy style while looking to future clashes with their cross-town rivals. The Muir-PHS and Blair-PHS frays should be eye-poppers.

MICHIGAN STATE to slip a nudge to Purdue by about 16-14. The Boilermakers lucked out last week over Michigan. Frankly, we would love to see Purdue get the Rose Bowl nod and it's possible, even with a loss here.

USC should be able to handle Clemson, but the figers will not be any huge pushover. Troy has plenty on the stick.

UCLA ventures to Big Bear land and the Berkeleys are high after dumping Washington. Forget it. UCLA is a "class" team not likely to blow anything they should win.

OREGON STATE to edge
Arizona State ... WASH- INGTON STATE to slip past MacDonald and the Idaho
... ILLINOIS over Stanford, but watch out for this one.

HERE IS THE PICK you have all been waiting for.
WASHINGTON to defeat Oregon. Old Hankus has missed five straight weeks on his picking of Oregon or against Oregon or whatever.
Just go the opposite way and win a bundle and then send contributions to the ancient one.

TEXAS A & M to spoil Baylor's Southwest title hopes ... NEBRASKA over Colorado, but not easily ...

Peg Christianson was a real grand prize winner for the weekend. She not only won the first prize for the tournament which was duly inscribed, she also won a baseball pool, and came home with a car full of loot for her birthday which they celebrated up there. 'PEPTONE' By ALICE MANG

During the past months people have been asking me to start an advice column, so every once in a while I will answer the questions that are asked.

Dear Alice:
I have a big problem because I wear glasses. Boys all think I look funny with them on. Do you have any ideas on how I can get a good boyfriend?

—Mary
Dear Mary:
Sometimes we are so concerned and self-conscious about the way we look that we forget about attending to our personality. Maybe if you remembered at your most trying times that some people wish they would be so fortunate as to wear glasses for they are blind, you would open up your personality to others and forget about your glasses. Dear Alice:
How can I get the round eye look? My eyes are so close together that no matter what I do it never turns out.

—Frustrated
Dear Frustrated:
Have you ever tried putting white lipstick in the corner portion next to your eye extending to about the middle of the upper and lower portions of your eye. This seems to do the trick. If you eyes are far apart try the same thing using brown eye-shadow.

If you have any problems just send them to Alice in care of the Sierra Madre News. I'll try to find an answer.

Tunnel To Bring State Water To Area

A contract calling for $29,394,648 for construction of Tehachapi Tunnels 1, 2, and 3 and Siphon 1 was awarded to Granite Construction Co., Gates and Fox Co., Inc. and Gordon H. Ball Enterprises, a joint venture from Watsonville.

The tunnels and siphon are located in the Tehachapi Mountains about six miles east of Lebec. They total three miles in length. Completion is scheduled for 1969.

Warne said the contract for a fourth tunnel, the Angeles Tunnel on the West Branch of the California Aqueduct, was awarded to Shea Kaiser Lockhead Healy, a joint venture from Glendora. The successful bid was for $95,039,650.

The seven-mile-long Angeles Tunnel will be the key unit of the cooperative power development to be undertaken by the State and the City of Los Angeles," Warne declared.

Project water will flow through Angeles Tunnel from Pyramid reservoir, a drop of 1,060 feet to the powerplant, to be located six miles north of the Community of Castaic on U.S. Highway 99. Completion is scheduled for 1970.

Warne also said construction is well along on a fifth tunnel, the five-mile-long Carley V. Porter Tunnel, also part of the Tehachapi Crossing. Excavation of the north and south portals is completed and tunnel excavation from the north head has penetrated almost 5,000 feet.

"Let's Talk Dry Cleaning"

by JOSEPH DELGATTO SR.

We expect our clothing to become soiled from wearing, but we frequently overlook the fact that our draperies also collect soil while just hanging. Unless your home is hermetically sealed—and few are—tiny particles of dust are constantly floating through the air, settling on your draperies.

Smoke from heating units and pipes and cigarettes sends off particles into the air and the sediment is deposited on your draperies. Very often heat and air affect colors, leave them dull looking. If left for any length of time, these elements will affect the delicate fibers of your draperies.

This is just one more reason why it is wise to send your draperies out to a reliable cleaner who will recognize the importance of deep-down cleaning.

We are proud of our drapery cleaning service, and we make a point of keeping up with the latest cleaning developments, so send us your draperies and let us prove our dependable service to you.

Watch for our remodeling grand opening!

Matches Are No. 1 Danger In Hands of Children

Note: Now that we are all alerted to fire prevention, our Fire Marshal, Bert Embree reminds parents that there is a job to do in teaching children about matches.

Too many children still cause fires, despite the efforts of parents, teachers and fire safety personnel. Most of these and the frequent deaths resulting could be and must be prevented.

The only way to be sure of protection for the very young is simply to make sure that all matches and lighters are kept completely out of reach. And, of course, never leave children without competent supervision, even for a few minutes. The young in particular are often totally helpless when fire breaks out.

Since children have a natural curiosity about all that is new or appealing to them, parents should accept the responsibility of taking the time and effort to channel a children's interest in matches into right directions, and accept, too, the responsibility of example. If adults at all times show respect for fire, handle matches and other sources of ignition carefully, explaining the reasons for this respect, children will naturally imitate this behavior. The renewed popularity of candles for table or patio use makes such home precaution doubly important.

A first rule of fire safety must be that children are never to use matches unless in the presence of an adult. However, they can and should learn to use matches properly, as soon as possible.

A child can be taught to use matches for such everyday purposes as lighting the candles on a birthday cake, starting the fire in the fireplace, or a campfire. Some parents permit a child to light an adult's cigarette, so that he may satisfy his desire to create a flame in the open. Just saying a lazy "Never," is likely to cause the secret experiments which may be disastrous.

Schools, of course, give children both safety instruction and fire drills, and the chance to learn about fire in science experiments. But fire prevention education is certainly one of the subjects which parents cannot just leave to school to do for them.

H. Edgerton Announces Bank Assets

Assets of California Federal Savings, the nation's largest federally chartered savings association, were $1,450,079,925 as of September 30, and reserves $99,547,427, Howard Edgerton, chairman and chief executive officer, announced today.

Over $97,305,075 in loans for the January-September period brought the association's total portfolio to $1,235,384,696.

A $14,499,371 September 30 dividend payment to savers raised the total dividends paid for the three quarters of this year to $41,140,084.

Edgerton said the California Federal board of directors has voted to compound earnings daily on all accounts effective October 1. Thus, the current annual rate of 5.25 per cent amounts to an annual yield of 5.39 per cent to savers. In addition, the association now compounds earnings from the date funds are received (from the first of the month, if received by the 10th); and pays earnings to the exact date of withdrawal on funds in an account 3 months from October 1 or thereafter.

California Federal currently has $181,547,288 in "bonus" accounts, savings which are earning an extra one half per cent dividend annually. Though recent government rulings prevent financial institutions from accepting new bonus accounts, Edgerton emphasized that current California Federal bonus account holders will be paid the bonus through the full three-year term of their accounts and that the bonus amount is guaranteed at one half per cent a year.

You and Your Neighbors

by Mary-Madeleine Lamphier

How's your pocketbook these days? Are you a protestor? Do you believe in adding reasonable action to protest? The Family Panel of America is seeking more young homemakers as new members so that the product testing, store check-ups and surveys in which members participate, along with a monthly Telewoman meeting, may better represent the really active homemakers of today. Purpose of the panel is to give consumers a framework within which a thorough study can be made of all issues affecting our pocketbooks. For information, write LuWanna Cornier, Family Panel of America, Box 3287, Burbank, California, 91504.

With the last weekend of this month sure to be busy, what with Halloween window painting Saturday, the turkey shoot Sunday (sorry, we printed date as Oct. 29 instead of Oct. 30), you might want to take your teenagers this weekend or next to see the exhibit of 450 photographs called "For More Than Bread," showing the work of the American Friends Service Committee throughout the world. The showing is at the California Museum of Science and Industry, Exposition Park, L. A., will run till Oct. 30, shows the misery and want of millions through the faces of individual people, includes a migrant workers' camp, a Japanese exchange student, volunteers in Tanzania. The trip could be a thoughtful preliminary to the count-your-blessings of the abundant American Thanksgiving holiday, might plant a seed which could blossom in a teen's seeking to do volunteer work (and it's a painful fact that this probably won't be the family dishes!).

Further for free: Firs Wednesday of each month there's an informal musicale open to the public without charge at the Azusa-Glendale college auditorium.

There are five still to go in the Community Forum series held Thursday evenings at Monrovia High auditorium and one ticket at $1.30 covers all. Next week's topic: "The New Russia."

If your household has a stamp collector and you missed the big annual exhibit of the Federated Philatelic Clubs of Southern California, you could still write the local club re membership.

There were only about 25 of the family gathered together for the recent Sunday celebration of the first wedding anniversary for Frank Van Winkle, son of Josephine, a former La Lona. But just wait till Christmas when the clan foregathers!

Speaking of prizes and awards, and there seem to be many in the news these days, how about that 1000-hour plaque presented to outgoing president Chris Hargraves when the Community Hospital Auxiliary had its installation of officers? Actually, Mrs. Hargraves put in 1,333 volunteer hours last year, Candy Stripes gave 603 hours, and the grand total of time donated came to 16,111. Staggering figure, happy fact. Newcomers should be alerted to the fact that playing bridge with these volunteers is a quick way to become acquainted in the community, as well as have fun. Phone Hazel Anderson, 355-7684. And if you yourself are giving a party, let Toy Stoddard make it pretty for a fee which will go to the hospital; her phone is 355-3091. She and her workshop members will turn out favors, centerpieces, etc., as lushly fascinating as the creations which have made the Auxiliary Christmas boutique celebrated in the area.

1st Meeting For Cub Pack 377 Fri., October 31

The Cub Scouts of Pack 377, Eugene Field School, Hastings Ranch are planning on a big year. Phil Calhoun will be the new Cub Master and he comes with many new ideas.

Next Friday, October 21, at 7:30 will be the first Pack meeting. The following boys will receive their Wolf badges: John Barr, Todd Leible, Bill Leigh, David Motheral, Steven Huss, Shawn Kathal, Russell Meredith, Alan Rotner, John Wright, Kevin Kurtz, Kenneth Jefferys, James Wilkins, Mark Horak, James Masters, and Mark Watt.

There will be one transference to the pack, Charles Stern.

The meeting will start with a flag salute, then uniform inspection, awards given and the meeting of the new members.

The following Saturday, October 22, 10-3, the pack will have their annual bottle drive. This money helps pay for the pack's expenses during the year. The Cubs collect any empty soft drink bottles on which they can get a refund.

The pack wants to thank the many people who help them each year.

La Lona's Open New Office In City

La Lona land is the strongest statement anyone could make of faith in the continuing growth of prosperity in Southern California, and especially in the accelerating appreciation of unique Sierra Madre. And the La Lona's have the kind of faith and habit of work which built the town in the first place; perhaps it is because so many of its founders were people who came with courage to regain health from mountain air that Sierra Madre has been unique in its brave and independent spirit as well as its charm and natural beauty. So how can the La Lona's avoid success with their new office?

The La Lona children are: Ernest Smith, Air Force tech sergeant in Vietnam, whose wife Dorothy and children Brett and Yanna wait in Duarte; Darryl, now at the University of Michigan, working toward a doctorate in anthropology on a National Science Foundation scholarship; and Annoula, recently graduated from Palmdale High School in Marin County and now attending PCC.

Henry Nelson Newly Elected Pres. of Board

Henry Nelson, past president of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club and long time, well known Sierra Madrean, newly elected president of the Sierra Madre Community Hospital Board, presided at the regular monthly Hospital Board of Directors meeting Thursday evening, October 13.

Nelson was elected president of the hospital board in replacement of Lester K. Layton, retired. Nelson will fill the position of administrator in the same capacity as that filled by Layton.

Asked what the new hospital administration policies would be, Nelson replied, "No new policies of any consequence. We will continue with the very satisfactory board committee management plan of the past which has contributed so well to the Sierra Madre Community Hospital standing and efficiency."

Rozella Wharton, newly elected president of the Hospital Women's Auxiliary, announced their plans for the Rummage Sale to be held at the Masonic Temple on November 18 and 19, from noon to 9 p.m., on Friday, October 19.

A city-wide campaign will be conducted, said Mrs. Wharton, to solicit all types of small household furniture, appliances, objects of art, travel, camping equipment and every kind of clothing for all ages. Those wishing to make such contribution should contact Mrs. Warren Brown, telephone 355-0285, not later than November 1, so that an auxiliary truck may call for and pick up contributions in time for the rummage sale.

The object of the sale, explained Mrs. Wharton, is to raise money to purchase equipment for an intensive care unit at the hospital.

New directors elected to the hospital board were: Jim Brown, of Brown Furniture, and John A. Sielen of 325 Toyon Road, a long time Sierra Madrean, well known locally for his leadership with boy scouts.

Four Members To Represent Area At National Meet

Four adult members of the Pasadena Area Girl Scout Council will represent the Girl Scouts of Sierra Madre, Pasadena, South Pasadena, Altadena, San Marino and La Canada as official delegates to the 37th meeting of the National Council of Girl Scouts of the USA in Detroit, Michigan, October 23-24. They are Mrs. Kurt Schiller, president of the council; Mrs. Norman D. Hewitt, executive director; Mrs. Herman Miller, Palms Neighborhood chairman, and Mrs. Floyd Elliott, staff member and La Pinteresa Neighborhood advisor.

The Pasadena delegation will join with representatives from 475 other Girl Scout councils throughout the United States to establish general lines of policy and direction for the Girl Scout movement, thereby affecting the activities of its almost 3 1/2 million members.

Senior citizens will be honored guests at Knott's Berry Farm and Ghost Town, Buena Park, during the sixth annual Pioneer Days celebration, Wednesday, November 9. More than 10,000 senior citizens are expected to attend this special day which offers fun, contests, prizes and entertainment.

Three free shows will be presented in the Covered Wagon Camp, featuring Ghost Town entertainment, prizes for the senior man and lady present, a musical comb contest and recognition of the club which traveled the farthest to attend. Show times are 10:30 a.m., noon and 1:30 p.m.

American Legion Auxiliary Reviews Program Of Activities For Service

Mrs. Wayne Beisel was hostess to members of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 297 at her home on Thursday evening. The new program of activities for the new year of service was reviewed.

The project for all Eighteenth District presidents will be the Pearl Buck Foundation.

Foreign relations will again study The Republic of the Philippines and The Castles For Care.

The National Child Welfare program emphasizes these six points: An active child welfare chairman in every unit, juvenile delinquency, outdoor recreation, emotionally disturbed children, child safety, support the American Legion Child Welfare Foundation, Inc.

Chairman Lucile Pickett reported a special child welfare project called, "The Koren Childrens Foundation." These are children of American soldier fathers and Korean mothers, namely "outcasts." A silent auction will be held at the Pickett home on Thursday night, October 27, proceeds to be given to this Foundation. $20 was allotted for Christmas welfare work.

Poppy chairman Edna Faller has ordered 1350 poppies and the girls of Mt. Alverno Academy are interested in making the Poppy Posters for Poppy Day. Hospital chairman Amy Beisel had an interesting display of the six gifts the unit is donating to the Veterans Christmas Gift Shop at San Fernando Hospital. Beautifully wrapped the packages contained, a robe, hand bag, 3 pairs of hose, bath towel set, kitchen towel set, and blouse. Every veteran may choose a gift for each one of his family from these donations by Units of District 16. Six bath robes have also been sent by Unit No. 297 to this Veterans Hospital.

Past presidents parley will hold a Halloween party and pot luck on October 28 at 6:30, at 120 Oberlin St., Claremont.

Interesting letters were read from absent members: Rose Galkin, Granada Hills, Anne Willumsen, Santa Barbara, Frances Brain, Leisure World, Opal Peterson, Arcadia, Ruth Blakeman, Almagordo, N.M. who is entertaining Ornelia Henderson. They had visited the Carlsbad Caverns, and Juarez, Mex. Also from Jerry Welch, Monterey, she and Lloyd expect to visit Sierra Madre sometime in October.

October is educational month. Many fine scholarships are offered by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Now relatives and the store neighbors of the Victor Keisels (Richard-Victor's Draperies and Picture Frames) can relax; reason they were couple of weeks late in returning from their planned September trip was a detour to Oklahoma to visit a grandson there. Their over 6,000-mile tour by car also took them to Niagara Falls, and the sharp beauty of autumn trees along the Hudson; to West Virginia, Michigan and to Omaha, Nebraska, which they claim is lovely as any spot in the country (home town for Mrs. Keisel and myself). Their multiple family reunions included visits with two daughters, two sisters, a niece, a brother. Now the street will seem normal again.

SALUTE TO HEROES — Holders of the Congressional Medal of Honor, the nation's highest award, are honored by Board of Supervisors at ceremonies at Hall of Administration. Five of the eight veterans, in Los Angeles to celebrate "Congressional Medal of Honor Week," are from the Fifth Supervisorial District of Supervisor Warren Dorn. Left to right are Gregory (Poppy) Boyington, North Hollywood; Rodolfo Hernandez, Camoga Park; Louis M. Van Iersel, Sierra Madre; Dorn; Thomas A. Pope, Camoga Park, and John L. Smith, Encino.

Another shop door was recently closed for a couple of weeks when the Parris went off to indulge in their fond collecting in Arizona of Indian artifacts and rocks and petrified jewel wood from their secret hunting the place. Due some tricks of wind and frost, the colors in the Grand Canyon when they revisited it were acclaimed by many as better color than seen there for 20 years. They also visited Glen Canyon and nearby Lake Powell, went to Sedonia at Oak Creek Canyon where they have property they try to visit yearly. The artifacts, increasingly rare, they obtain from private collectors, sometimes by trading with the Indians. As visitors to the Jewellers Workshop know, these pieces are used for decor in the shop, sometimes are painted by Mrs. Parr.

Myrtle Johnson An Inspiration became known in the small community of Sierra Madre, and in the following year, the enrollment in the school doubled.

In all these years, she counts a total number of 50 years of school teaching.

However, there were brief periods of respite from teaching during this time. She married Ray Johnson, raised a family of three children, and, during World War II, while her sons were in the service, she worked as "Rosie the Riveter" at Douglas Aircraft in Chicago.

A frail appearing wisp of a woman with pure white hair and expressive eyes, Mrs. Johnson reminds one of a delicate porcelain figurine, but her appearance belies her indomitable spirit. Like her illustrious ancestor, she believes in self-discipline and hard work.

Her success in teaching can be attributed to her ability to communicate to the children her great love and dedication to learning. One is impressed by the respect and obedience she commands in her classes from the normally irrepressible six and seven year olds.

She demands and gets good performance and, as one of her former students said, they "still love her." Of course, she loves them too and she loves teaching.

Last year, after 48 years of marriage, her husband passed away of a heart attack. Mrs. Johnson admits that life has not been the same since, for they had been a couple devoted to each other. Every evening, for all the year she's been teaching, while she did her "homework," Mr. Johnson used to read to her. Every year for the past 16 years until her husband's death, they had taken cross-country trips by car to visit historical spots in the country. Still, this woman, who says she would rather "work than rust," continues her teaching at the Ascension Parish Day School. The second generation children of students she has had in the early years are beginning to crop up in her classes. While she feeds the minds of their young ones, she has become an inspiration to the parents.

A sneaky way to upgrade family promptness if you have clock problem-personalities might be to persuade same to accompany you to the free lecture at FCC Tuesday, October 20 on "Time and the Calendar." This is the first of this year's Planetarium lecture series, (but held at FCC). Other shows are: Nov. 3, Eclipses; Nov. 17, the Solar System; Dec. 1, Comets and Meteors; Dec. 15, Constellations and the Winter Sky. Because of limited seating and closed doors once presentation begins, phone for reserved free tickets at 795-6961.

Fire Prevention Week Noted In Hawaii Too

This column today comes from the island of Maui, second largest of the Hawaiian group, windy a bit, and filled with acres and acres of sugar cane and all possible types of fruits and vegetables.

Even here they are getting ready to celebrate fire prevention week. Columns in the Honolulu papers remind us that 12,000 people died as a result of fires last year and property losses totaled $1.4 billion dollars. . . their celebrations over here for this week are much different than ours.

They have a fire prevention motorcade one day and a "run fire out" jogathon and celebration on another. Eight firemen, I understand will do the "run."

All week long all kinds of events are being held from "visit your fire chief day" to school fire drills, demonstrations in every area on fire prevention techniques, and, of course, fire boat drills in the various harbors.

Our guide here on Maui took us through the town of Kahului which is very old and building fronts in the old part of town look like a Western town. Anyhow, as we went along he pointed out the fire department and said they hold the island record. He paused and I wondered with everyone else "what record." So someone asked, "what record." The answer: "They have never put out a fire . . . always arrive too late" . . . I am afraid that was done a little tongue in cheek, but knowing the deliberate non-hurry on the part of Hawaiians we could all understand it . . . over here they want you to slow down and have a phrase that is used in the Hawaiian tongue that means to take it easy.

Weeks for this and that are real great and are important, even though we wonder about some of them, but knowing your editor, I think he will concur with me that this week of fire prevention is one of the most important — but that it would be wonderful if we could think about prevention during all the year — not on just one week!

Seems like we on the island of "Am-a-re-ka" as the natives here tease us about, have to have reminders once a year about a lot of things — which shouldn't be necessary at all!

Trash wise over here they are far more conscious of litter than we are. When you are told blankly to put your refuse in containers provided and that they want no roadside litter or park litter . . . and so they are as clean as a whistle. Few road signs, if any — and they call your attention to it and are proud of it!

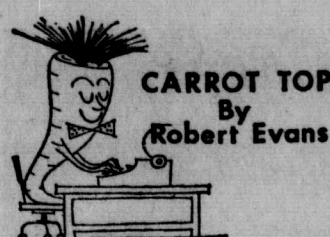

Every beach park or inland park we have visited shows no litter — and believe me the families over here are large — numerous, and what they carry for lunches would put us to shame! Gobs and gobs of stuff!

Yards are much different here than ours, and it seems to me they have a feeling of each one keeping the country beautiful. In the week here I have heard no fire alarms — and it sure isn't because of the weather, for it's been unusually hot. What a country for dresses, pants and shirts that have permanent creases and non-wilting!

Not everything is green, for there are dry hills covered with verbena and koa trees that are brown. They are just as concerned in fire prevention as we are.

Most of the average income families have wooden homes and they are old, especially in the plantation towns. Most of these buildings have little shrubbery plantings, but grass grows right up to the buildings with the area filled in with tall trees to give shade . . . everyone has bananas, coconut trees and plumerias from which the lovely leis are made.

Fire prevention week is on us and maybe it should Madre News was one of the remaining Conservative Newspapers still alive.

Dayton owns and operates the All American Book Store at 3231 E. Foothill in Pasadena and has the opportunity of reviewing many good books which he has for sale to the general public. He is on the firing line, so to speak, when it comes to publications and what he does not know about them, leaves little to be known. See him for suggested reading materials, he has 'em.

Our grapevine turned up something this past week that will make your hair curl, and it's not all hearsay either. It was confirmed to a certain extent for us, knowing that it was just not rumors, but facts.

Seems that the Sheriff's Department of the County of Los Angeles is now training men as a Los Angeles County Search and Rescue Team, that the intent of the project is to "take over the job of the rescue teams of the County."

To be blunt about the situation, we feel that it is an attempt to put out of action the five search and rescue teams of the county, which of course would include our own Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team.

Now we do know that men are in training in the county for the Sheriff Search and Rescue Team. We have been told that when this takes place the taxpayers can expect to pay somewhere in the vicinity of $245,000 a year. Now this figure may not be entirely accurate, and we certainly will check it out and notify you at a later date.

Anyway the very thought of this kind of procedure is disturbing, and we certainly will follow through on it to uncover the plan.

So, we will close the column for the week with the following notation to all political candidates . . . "do not attempt to pull the wool over the eyes of the taxpayer, some of us have x-ray vision, I hope, I hope, I hope."

be a heavy reminder of our DUTY to see that inside our houses, where most fires start, that we have our wiring checked — toaster cord, heater cord, TV cords and cords to the radio. That we also have some method of knowing how to call the fire department — that we have something to put on a house fire AFTER we have made the call, and that all faucets have a hose attached.

No one wants to think of fire, but we have to in our modern day and this also should make us think of fire insurance which few homes carry. So in Sierra Madre, why not contact your insurance man and talk it over. It won't cost anything to talk, and it will save some heartaches later on. Prevention, as I have said before, has to do with thinking ahead — planning for that thing we hope won't happen . . . but at least being ready for it if it does. Aloha!

crete pipe in diameters of 39 and 45 inches. It will be laid in Sierra Madre Blvd. from near Park Ave. to Arcadia Wash.

Project 7501 is a three-pronged facility with lines to be routed as follows:

You don't have to be poor to go quietly broke at times.

The trouble with rich people is, they spend like rich people. You could be loaded and still suffer an occasional shock. Property taxes—up! School tuition—zoom! And the stock market—don't even look!

Going broke the middle-class way.

What if you're not rich—just in-between? You've still got bills for the kid's tonsils, the car's transmission, taxes, house-painting—and sometimes they all hit you at once.

Take the cure. Don't starve through November. December will be better. Open a No-bounce Account, First Western Bank's way of making financial shocks less shocking. A No-bounce Account lets you write your own loans, literally. You write a check which is actually an overdraft, and we cover it with an automatic loan. We advance you from $100 to $2400, depending on your own No-bounce Account limit.

How can you ever repay us?

We're good-hearted souls but we don't give money away. (We'd never have gotten to be an $800-million bank if we did.) You repay your No-bounce Account and we get 1½% interest per month (on the average daily balance due).

Apply yourself. The smart thing is to apply for a No-bounce Account when you don't need it, and have it standing by in case you ever do. (You don't have to be J. Paul Financier to get one—just a good reliable type.) If and when you ever use it, it'll be strictly between you and our computer—and our computer knows how to keep a secret. Meanwhile it's just waiting to help when you get broke—quietly.

Investment Guidelines

SO YOU'RE THINKING ABOUT BONDS!!!

Good thinking! Bonds, whether municipal, state, federal, or what have you, are generally a pretty solid investment. You're taking a step toward financial security and independence through positive planning. But wait a moment... are you taking a step in the right direction? Would such an investment give you not only the security and high earnings you wish, but also the liquidity you might need in time of emergency and without loss of principal? Wouldn't you like all these in one package? Of course, you would. Therefore, we recommend investing in the AFS plan.

Most busy come election time will be Mrs. Howard Sheik, 137 W. Montecito Ave., for in addition to helping at the polls, she'll be in a mother-whirl about the marriage of her daughter Priscilla, slated for Nov. 4. Priscilla, graduate of PHS, will wed Gary Quarton of Altadena who attended John Muir, is currently in the Air Force, stationed at Chanuteville, Ill. Her older brother Howard, now married himself and living in Pasadena, will sing at the marriage service, and the younger brother Chris, 13, will be able to boast to Wilson classmates of being an usher.

Rumor is that an important bank executive and former resident is being bullied by his wife. Reason for rumor: Clarence Ednor, one of First Western's executive vice presidents who used to live on Oakland Drive here, has his whole family in such a dither because of his mid-way tie for third place in the Sierra Madre Fall Classic that wife Annette is being accused of putting him on a special tiger-type diet for the week before the finals at Los Seranos. Anyway, whoever wins, all are having much fun and next year's tournament, with its planned Scotch eighthsome should have quite a turnout.

This week Worshipful Master Earl Knowles is representing Sierra Madre Mason Lodge No. 408 in San Francisco for the Annual Communication of Masons in California. About 4000 are expected to attend, with delegates representing the 711 lodges in the state and there will be a big ceremony for burning the mortgage of the new temple, located right across from the Top of the Mark. Remembering the hard work Mr. Knowles put in last spring on decorating our local lodge, we hope he has fun as well as inspiration.

Sparks of pride will be flying all over the place come October 25, when no less than four members of Boy Scout Troop No. 373 of Sierra Madre Congregational Church will have the honor to become Eagle Scouts.

Scouts. Fireman T. Neil Smith is the Scoutmaster, and the boys are George Clark, 17, Robert Cowan, 15, John Kingsbury, 17, and Carl Tucker, (son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cheadle). Younger sister Elizabeth Cheadle will be properly admiring, as will the PHS classmates of the boys who all attend the same school.

Robert Sharforth, treasurer of LA but devoted resident here at 400 W. Montecito, is taking wife Kathleen along to San Diego for the convention of the League of California Cities, at which he will be on the program committee. Minding their books at home are Peggy, 17, PHS and Jim 13, Wilson. The family is pleased at the improved health of Mrs. Shadforth's mother, Mrs. Mary W. Pulling, now out of the hospital and recovering at the Arcadia Convalescent Home, where she loves to have friends drop in, hint, hint.

Recovering from a real big do-re Mr. and Mrs. Carl Westerberg, 56, Monterey Carl is president of the First Gas Regiment of World War I, and as such had the job of planning the program for their annual meet which this year took place in LA. He also had the assistance of his wife Louise, who was rewarded by getting to attend the banquet. Some 50 men came—wonderful to keep in touch with old comrades over so long a stretch. The Westerbergs' married daughters and grandchildren are scattered, northern California, Arizona. St. Paul, no it was heart-warming to see their long-time friends.

This time inquire after the health of the father as much as that of the mother of the new baby, Andrea Sara, weighing 8 lb. 1 1/2 oz. when she was born Saturday, Oct. 8 in the back of the family truck, delivered by her father Minor Harkness. Yup, biggest rescue job he ever expects to have to face, and despite all his fancy training for the Search and Rescue Team in giving of blood plasma, drugs, adrenalin, shots, somehow no one included emergency obstetrics in the curriculum. He allows as how he is improving in recovery, however. His stress condition was no way helped by all the furor about an LA County team encountered training in the area day before, and same Saturday eve a newspaper phoned him for a statement on this. Fortunately, grandmother Mrs. Alice Harkness by loan of husband Miner, Sr. to mind domestic peace and home fires for both rescuer and the eager other children, twins Phillippe and Jacques, 7, and three-year-old Claudine. Maternal grandfather Vaughan lives near enough at Westchester to come avisting when Andrea Sara and mother Sara arrive home. Oh, yes, mother and baby are flourishing at the Glendale Sanatorium.

Accountants To Hear L. H. Penney On October 25th

"What is the Accounting Principles Board and what is it doing?" will be the question discussed at the Oct. 25th meeting of the American Society of Women Accountants to be held at Michael's on Los Feliz Blvd. at 6:30 in the evening. The speaker, to be presented by Mrs. Lucille Kinkle, program chairman, will be Mr. L. H. Penney, C.P.A., of L. H. Penney and Co. Mr. Penney, a member of the Accounting Principles Board himself, will provide answers to this question on the basis of his own first-hand knowledge and experience, including, among many other activities, service on a number of committees of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants. Concurrent with his work on the Accounting Principles Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Institute has presented Mr. Penney with its Gold Medal for Distinguished Service, the highest award for service and achievement in the accounting profession.

3 Wins Out of 4 For Pop Warner Football Teams

Three wins out of four games gives a pleasantly victorious glow to those on the Pasadena Pop Warner Bulldog football teams. Scores racked up this past Saturday were: Pee-Wee over West Covina Eagles, 13-6; Midgets over Rosemead Rebels, 14-14; Junior Bantams over South Pasadena, 25-0.

Sierra Madre team members gave a good account of themselves. Scott McKay, newly converted to fullback, ploughed through the enemy line for the Pee-Wees and Tom McGoldrick played well at right guard, with Bart Bradley neatly intercepting a pass on the defense and Tom Nickelloff creating successful confusion for opponents by miving his plays at quarter-back.

Greg Bradley, Midget quarterback, scored a touchdown, backed by sturdy coordination from teammates Joe Hardy, Chris Haines, Mike McGoldrick and Blake Nuetzell.

Schedule for this Saturday, Oct. 15, at home in Victory Park, lines up Pee-Wees versus El Monte Lions, Midgets against El Monte Jets, and Junior Bantams playing Gardena. Play begins at 11 a.m.

the Devils Canyon and of long treks over the ridges to pick up mail at the stage stops in the San Gabriel Canyon. Written during July and August of 1908 the diary is a colorful document of our mountains and should be printed in its entirety.

Seated next to the young pair and at the extreme right of the picture are the famous brothers. Ranchers in San Gabriel they spent all the off seasons wandering our hills and became well known for their hunting prowess. They loved to roam the high back ridges and to hunt the desert slopes.

An attractively timbered high country canyon with a small camp ground and gossipping stream now bears their name. Boy Scouts hiking the famed Silver Moccasin Trail spend the night here before starting the long haul up the back bone of the range.

Seated between the brothers and gazing pensively into the fire is a mountaineer that almost all early day Sierra Madrans can name. One of the first rangers in the San Gabriel Timber Land Reserve, he has been likened to the San Gabriels as John Muir is to the Sierras.

A long time resident of Sierra Madre he constructed ed a new shorter trail out of the West Fork and home-steaded a plot of land near Chisao. A mountain pass and a small resort now bears his name.

The picture in the inset is one of the group on their way to the mountains, with burros and plenty of supplies that will last out the trip. Send in your guesses to Post Office Box 37, the first one to reach us that is accurate will receive the prize of $10.00.

Postmaster Rossi Issues Memo For Christmas Mail

In anticipation of increased mailings to other countries during the holiday season, Postmaster Guy Rossi has issued the following information for the guidance of all mailing letters, greeting cards and parcels to foreign countries.

Packages offered for mailing that do not appear to be adequately packed will not be accepted. All articles should be packed in boxes of wood, metal, solid fiberboard, or strong double faced corrugated fiberboard.

All fiberboard boxes should be securely wrapped in heavy paper which materially strengthens the package. Each box should be well tied with strong cord and sufficient cushioning material should be used to prevent any rattling or loosening of articles within the package. Unless tightly filled, boxes are likely to be crushed.

Taking into consideration the normal length of time of transit, irregularity of steamship sailings to some destinations, customs inspections, and other formalities that packages containing merchandise may be subject to in the countries of destination, surface and air packages should be mailed by the following dates to reach the addressees before Christmas:

South and Central America, surface, Nov. 15, air, Dec. 15; Europe, surface, Nov. 15, air, Dec. 15; Africa, surface, Nov. 1, air, Dec. 10; Near East, surface, Nov. 1, air, Dec. 10, and Far East, surface, Oct. 15, air, Dec. 10.

Letters and greeting cards should be posted no later than five days after the above dates for delivery before Christmas. These dates given above are not to be confused with those for mailing to Armed Forces Overseas, which will be issued at a later date.

'Let's Fly Away' Theme of Meeting

"Let's fly away" with a travelogue theme will highlight the October 20 meeting of the Pasadena Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi. The 8 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. H. Kock, 714 S. Hudson Ave., Pasadena.

Travel posters will decorate the walls and the trips will be supplied by various members. They will show selected slides and movies of trips they have taken.

Mrs. Kennedy Brogren will show Hawaii, Mrs. T. Pivrotto has slides of back in the Sierras, Mrs. Joseph Forstach, Baja, California. Mrs. C. E. Osborn, Brazil, Mrs. C. H. Kock, Mackinaw, Michigan and Mrs. Soderberg, out of the way places in Europe.

Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Thomas Pivrotto, Mrs. Jack Heard and Mrs. Donald Churchill and will carry out the seasonal colors of orange and black.

There is one thing that is certainly not legal in California and that is gambling.

We voted against it. You can bet on the horses as long as you go to the track or have a clever bookie. If you play poker in the back room with the boys for anything more than buttons you are subject to arrest on account of that's gambling.

The ladies that put their quarters in the corner of the bridge table are gambling. Taint legal . . .

But — you can play Lucky Bucks, Cash on the Line, Go To the Races; Win-Check, Rose Color Glasses Sweepstakes, Bonus Bingo, Match the Halves Bingo, Post Time, Cash a Check, and I don't know how many more. That's not gambling, that is giving it away and all that is involved is just plain luck.

It's getting so that you don't go around with a purse full of money — there's no room. You carry a purse full of chances on literally thousands of dollars plus an assortment of blue, green, orange, and gold stamps, an odd variety of 5, 7, 8, 10 and 15 cent for trying this item coupons, and a few absolutely free trial coupons. I'm about ready to insure my handbag for the potential value that might or might not be harbored within.

Of course there are a few stores left that don't fill your bags with anything more than groceries and instead of bonus dishes, jewels, or silver, they call you by your name and inquire about your health. They greet you with a warm smile and are happy that you have come to see them. With that kind of gift certificate the customer is a winner every day because, as one philosopher so aptly stated, there is no sweeter music to one's ears than the sound of his own name. You pay no tax on this prize, it carries no disappointment, you can't lose it, but you can share it. You don't have to lock it up for fear it will be stolen, and you don't have to paste it in any book. Best of all, it "ain't gambling" and it's perfectly legal!

Kinneloa Canyon has several new families that have moved in in the past few months.

One of the families are Mr. and Mrs. Rolland H. Whitened and their three children. They have moved into a lovely new home at 2300 Kinneloa Canyon Road.

Mr. Whitened is Regional Manager of DuBois Chemical Company in the City of Industry.

Their eldest daughter Ellen is in her sophomore year at UCLA. She is majoring in a science course and plans to be a nurse. Their son Dick is in the Navy and is presently stationed on a destroyer, the USS Edson, in the San Francisco area, and their youngest son David is in the ninth grade at Marshall Jr. High School.

Both Rolland and Yolanda are golf enthusiasts. Yolanda belongs to the Eaton Canyon Golf Club. I asked her if she had a handicap and she laughed and said, "Heavens, no, I am the one that makes the winners; you know they have to beat someone!"

The entire family are all active and working members of the Trinity Presbyterian Church.

Another family is Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kellholtz and their four children. They have a home at 2070 Kinneloa Drive. Mr. Kellholtz is a Feed Broker with the R. S. Wilson Company in Los Angeles.

Their eighteen year old daughter Karen is a sophomore at the University of Southern California. She belongs to the Delta Gamma Sorority. Her major is Sociology.

Kristi, 16, is a junior at Pasadena High School, and Kent, 10 and Bob, 9 years old are both in Eugene Field School. They have recently built a new swimming pool, so, for a while their hobbies will be confined to swimming (brrrrr) and gardening.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman White of Old House Road gave an intimate little dinner party last week for a group of their friends. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walt Wikenson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lewdan, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill McClure.

The "Carmel Classic" is over and the victors have come home with their spoils. Before you think you have missed one of the big golf open tournaments let me explain that the classic is a coined name for an outing by a select group of old friends and incidentally golfers. They have been getting together for several years for little sojourns to nearby vacation sites for a few days of golfing and fun. This year they all stayed at the Pine Inn in Carmel. It was a Thursday to Sunday kind of weekend. There was a tournament for both the men and the women.

The grand prize for men was a navy blue blazer jacket with a Carmel golf — Please turn to Page 6

By Their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them

Here they are! The Justices of the California Supreme Court who joined in ruling Proposition 14 Unconstitutional last May. In effect, they ruled that you were wrong in voting to enact a law that could protect for you a Sacred Liberty or Property Right.

Though Proposition 14 received some four and a half million votes, winning by a margin of nearly two to one, three Supreme Court Justices in effect ruled that the people of the Sovereign State of California have no right to make the laws under which they live.

Now comes the day of reckoning! Here are the Justices of the California Supreme Court who must now — this November — ask for your approval if they are to remain in office. By your NO votes you can end their term in office. Of the five California Supreme Court Justices herein named, only one — Justice Marshall F. McComb — voted that Proposition 14 was Constitutional.

Let Us Not Forget

The victory of the California voters in November of 1964, in voting for Proposition 13, to protect their property rights against the Rumford Forced Housing Act, was short lived.

Though victory for the people was by some four and a half million votes to around half that number, the California Supreme Court ruled, last spring, that the measure was unconstitutional. The three justices who joined in this overruling the overwhelming will of the people were Traynor, Peek and Burke, the latter two Governor Brown appointees. Another Brown appointee was Mosk, who disqualifies himself from voting because he had previously written the arguments against the measure.

Governor Brown is now undertaking to placate the liberty-loving people of California who are screaming for the repeal of the Rumford Forced Housing Act by suggesting compromise. The people of California, fully understanding, will have no part of this form of blind-folding surrender. But the fight doesn't stop there.

Supreme Court Justices of California, Roger J. Traynor, now chief justice, Paul Peek, Louis H. Burke, Stanley Mosk and Marshall F. McComb are up for approval or disapproval in November. By their names you vote to retain them or reject them by simple yes or no votes. Of this five Marshall F. McComb was the only one who voted that Proposition 13 was constitutional. Come the November election may the liberty-loving people of California not forget to vote NO on Traynor, Peek, Burke and Mosk.

And at the same election may they also remember that the Republican candidate for governor, Ronald Reagan, has strongly declared his stand for the rights of the people, as was expressed by Proposition 13 and against the vicious Rumford Forced Housing Act.

We Saw!

We could not believe our ears the other day when we received information that the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department was training men with the idea of taking over the Search and Rescue Work of the County. But again one can never tell when an elected official will try and grab a little more power than that which was given to him during his election.

Publicity brought forth the following statement from Jim Downey, assistant Sheriff.

"Recent statements and inquiries regarding a so-called secret force of deputies being trained for search and rescue operations, received a terse denial from the Sheriff's office early today. Sheriff Peter Pitchess was reached at the annual conference of the Chiefs of Police, and when informed of the allegations, stated bluntly 'Not so.'"

"Ranking members of the Sheriff's Department stated that the newspaper accounts depicting the force as 'an attempt to discontinue the free, volunteer services from volunteer rescue teams were issued without consultation with the Sheriff or persons within the department in a position to speak knowledgeably on the subject.'"

A team of Sheriff's Deputies has been training for some months to handle specialized rescue operations ranging from air-sea accidents, industrial accidents, natural disasters, and anti-sniper training to handle such matters as the mass slaying in Texas or the like.

"They have trained in areas as far distant as Antelope Valley and Catalina Island.

Pitchess concluded, terming the proposed disassociation of his department with volunteer mountain rescue teams as ridiculous."

— Jim Downey

We would like to see the Sheriff's Office and more particularly the Sheriff, himself, present himself to the Search and Rescue Team and tell them personally that he had NO INTENTIONS of pre-empting. Either before or after elections in November.

Costly Fraud

The high price of cheap, tax-exempt, socialized electricity was forcibly called to public attention recently during the dedication ceremonies of a new powerhouse constructed by one of the nation's largest investor-owned power companies located on the West Coast.

During the dedication, the supervisor of a northern California county spoke with feeling of what the company meant to the people of his county in terms of tax payments to over 100 separate taxing bodies in the county. He pointed out that: "This fiscal year the company is paying $4,800,000. And . . . our revenues . . . probably will be even greater next year. Of this company's $4,800,000 paid this year, 59 per cent, or $2,800,000 went to our schools and school districts." He added that 40 per cent of all the property taxes collected in the county were paid by this company.

On the question of tax-exempt government electric power, he had this to say: "By way of comparison, this company's investment in Shasta County is virtually equal to the federal government's investment in the Shasta and Keswick dams and power facilities of the Central Valley Project. As you know, no tax wealth flows into our local economy from that large federal investment.

"Were it not for the private utility company's facilities, Shasta County citizens would have to come up with 40 per cent more in taxes in order to carry out the functions of government and the jobs the many taxing district perform for the welfare of the public."

Tax-exempt ventures into business, such as electric power, are no more than costly frauds, and the general taxpayer is the victim. The investor-owned electric industry is able and willing to provide for the power needs of the nation and, at the same time, help pay the taxes to support government at all levels.

Were you slightly burned when the California Supreme Court, by a five to three majority, declared Proposition 13 unconstitutional?

Were you a little more than slightly frustrated with the realization that by this action five political appointees had successfully thwarted the will of four and a half million voters?

Were you disturbed by the fact that four of these five political plums have been bestowed by Governor Brown within the past four years?

Would you relish the opportunity to exercise the right to remove from office these four Brown appointees who so effectively aided in silencing the voice of a better than two to one majority of the voters of California? Well, take heart, dear voter, you can do just that come November 8.

Many California citizens do not realize they have the right to vote Supreme Court Justices out of office! Supreme Court Justices in the State of California are NOT appointed for life. They are appointed by the governor for a term of twelve years, subject to the approval of the voters at the next general election and for each 12 year term thereafter.

Four of the Justices who will appear on the ballot this November 8 are: LOUIS BURKE, STANLEY MOSK, PAUL PEEK AND ROGER TRAYNOR. Besides the names you vote to retain them or reject them by simple "yes" or "no" votes. Let us take a look at this court's record:

PROPOSITION 13 — FORCED HOUSING: In November, 1964, the people of California, by a ratio of two to one, amended the constitution of the State of California to guarantee to all persons, regardless of race, color or religion, equal rights in their property. To deny property rights to the people is to reduce us to a socialist state. The Supreme Court of the State of California, by its decision nullifying Proposition 13, has effectively nullified the will of the people from whom the court derives its power.

DORADO DECISION — CRIME: California leads the nation in crime, and the Supreme Court, by its Dorado decision, has seriously hampered law enforcement in California. Under Dorado, policemen, who ordinarily are not required to be learned and skilled in constitutional law, now have the burden of advising suspects of their constitutional rights, and they must do so at just the right moment in the proceedings, otherwise the probability is extremely great that the self-confessed, violent criminal will be turned loose.

Recently, a confessed, and once-condemned, killer not only escaped the gas chamber, but was completely cleared because of the Dorado decision.

J. Edgar Hoover said: "The rights of those accused of crimes should not be paramount and superior to the rights of the decent, law-abiding citizens of the Community . . ." Numerous decisions involving rape, attack and murder have been reversed due to Dorado. This has produced a loss of police protection to the point where our streets are no longer safe.

ZEITLIN DECISION — PORNOGRAPHY: California is today flooded with obscenity. About 60 per cent of the nation's lewd paperback and magazines are published by California firms. The content of this material has become more vile each year and now represents a body of hard-core, perversion literature, 75 to 90 per cent of which falls into the hands of teenagers or younger children.

In the Zeitlin decision, the California Supreme Court adopted a rule on obscenity limiting law enforcement and prosecutions much more severely than has the United States Supreme Court. This ruling has been a major cause of California's development as America's smut capital.

Justice MARSHALL F. McCOMB will also appear on the November 8th ballot. Much of the above information is based on his dissenting opinions!

Further information may be obtained by writing: The Committee for a Responsible California Supreme Court, 4882 1/2 Huntington Drive, South, No. 202, Los Angeles, California 90032.
